Meyer Law Firm, PC is now MeyerJensen, PC

In addition to our name change, we are pleased to announce that shareholder Craig J. Jensen has brought his 25 years of litigation experience to our firm. Craig began his career in Madison County, Illinois, as an Assistant State's Attorney in 1990. While working for Bill Haine, he developed into one of the State's Attorney's Office's top felony prosecutors. It was here that Craig began honing the trial skills that would serve him so well when he joined the Lakin Law Firm in 1996. He enjoyed great success with that firm for over 15 years, handling serious injury and death cases of all kinds in multiple jurisdictions around the country.

Craig brings to our firm a wealth of litigation experience protecting victims of negligence. One of his primary areas of practice is the representation of Jones Act seamen and workers injured on the river or the high seas. He also has extensive experience representing victims of nursing home and medical neglect. We are excited to have such a talented, dynamic and skilled advocate on our team.

MeyerJensen also welcomes Benton Bradshaw as new counsel

Ben is a 2007 graduate of the University of Dayton School of Law where he focused his studies on technology law. He has a bachelor of arts in History and a bachelor of science in Biology from Saint Louis University. He is currently licensed to practice in Illinois and Missouri and is registered to practice before the United States Patent & Trademark Office.

Ben's background in technology and complex medical matters uniquely qualifies him to work on the firm's workers' compensation, products liability, personal injury, and medical negligence cases.
