

CARGO

Motor truck cargo coverage insurance is protection carried by truckers while transporting their loads. In the transportation industry, the trucker is deemed responsible for cargo as soon as it enters his possession. The insurance provides coverage in the event the freight is damaged or lost while in transit.