

Professional History: Over 35 years experience in technical, project management and general management and senior consulting positions with EGS, Inc., Epigene International, Woodward-Clyde Consultants, U. S. Geological Survey

Fields of Expertise: - Engineering geology for project planning, siting, evaluation, and environmental issues. Management of geologic, hydrologic and environmental technical services, project management, client relations, proposals, consultation for geotechnical and environmental investigations, active fault investigations, landslide investigations, report writing and observation of construction projects. Environmental experience includes Phase 1 and 2 site assessments' environmental sampling; coordination of combined environmental, geo-hazards and geotechnical investigations; environmental work plans, monitoring well installation and sampling analysis. Preparing Feasibility Studies and Remedial Action Plans and managing site through case closure

Professional Affiliations: Association of Environmental and Engineering Geologists; American Geophysical Union; International Association of Engineering Geologists.